

THE DAGLIGHTALE

Volume 925 Number 8

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STUDENTS OF AUGUSTANA

February 14, 1994

Let's All Love

My dearest, most ennobled
Technooby:
You are beautiful. "Come to me
...And the world will be ours tonight..." (Is it hot in here?)
Love, P. Pie
P.S. Kish ... une looks real!
P.P.S. But did they wear hats?

Soogemuffin: Go ahead. Just throw your head back and gargle, because you are beautiful!
Love, K.B.

Metanomic:
"Come down to my room
I was thinking about you and I made a pass at myself"
L.C.

Marbles:
"Like a beer lady? (Oh yes and cats) Xxxxxx. Happy V.D. Ding Muffin!"
Kash

To my number 15
Happy Valentines Day
Love your Puck Teck.

To my other 2/3
Love, love, love! Death mayhem, and postulance! Long live the black Triangle...
Love, the other 1/3
(Vegetation Woman Lives!)

To the Boys of Anderson
We Love...
Love B & Z

Letter to the Editors

Dear Editors,

My congratulations to Sandeep Dhir for his article "Celebrating Homosexuality" in the January 31, 1994 issue of the Dagligtaltale. It is about time someone brought this issue to the attention of the ignorant. And that's exactly where the criticism comes from—ignorance.

We, as a society, make great "efforts" to teach our children to be tolerant, preaching equality and acceptance, yet here is the most blatant example of how we are projecting prejudice and suppression.

At what point in a person's life do they decide that they are heterosexual? They don't "decide" they just know, right? So doesn't this apply to homosexuals as well? They don't "decide" they just know.

People are people, and prejudice is prejudice. And wouldn't life be wonderful if we could just stand up from the entire world and decide that all prejudice, pain and suffering will end "starting now"?

But life just doesn't work that way. People disagree, and sometimes, out of necessity, we have to sit back and accept things that we don't like.

Homosexuality is a fact of life. No matter how hard they try to avoid it, it still exists. Deal with it. We've come to accept other races and religions, so who decides that we draw the line at sexual orientation?

Every man, woman and child in Canada is guaranteed their rights as people under the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. This should include gays and lesbians as well. Open your eyes and your minds. PEOPLE ARE PEOPLE, regardless of their age, sex, race, religion or sexual orientation.

Society, as a whole, denounces prejudice and discrimination, yet a staggering number of people support "anti-homosexual" attitudes and policies. Draw your own line.

Christina Mierau

Michael Bratvold
President

THE DAGLIGTALTE

I hope everyone is having a good semester. It's been a really busy time for many members of council.

As for myself, apart from meeting upon meetings, most of my time deals with our Constitution. I trust everyone received a copy of my memo concerning the General Meeting. If there is anyone concerned or still curious as to why there was a change of date please come and see me. As I stated in my memo, I believe the changed date is in the best interests of students.

Council has replaced the vacated positions of Off Campus, Second Year and Third Year Representatives. Your new Representatives are as follows: 2nd Year Rep. - Jeff Rosnau 3rd Year Rep. - Ryan Sanderson Off Campus Reps. - Dave Kawakaskas and Keenen Tumling

Have a good break!

Stacy Prochnau
VP External

THE DAGLIGTALTE

The last couple weeks have been terribly hectic. Unfortunately there was only one entry for the Snow King and Queen Carnival, thank you Kelly Blaney. We have also been planning our Open House booth and activities as well as the upcoming Comic Show that Simon B. Cotter will be putting on. The show will be on February 18 in the Hansen Centre from Noon to 1:30. Make sure you come early, seating will be limited.

Stacy Denham
VP External

THE DAGLIGTALTE

Well devoted Students' Union page readers, I am pleased to announce that your Students' Union is now a member of the Quality Education Coalition. Even better than this, however is that it, is at no cost to yourselves. The Quality Education Coalition is a broad-based provincial lobby group whose mandate is to combat the government's cutbacks to education funding. Its membership is committed to educating and mobilizing students, parents, faculty members, teachers, support staff, small business and the general public. The next meeting of the Coalition is on March 2, 1994. Hopefully more information about their planned activities will be made available to them.

Once again, for those of you who are interested in ordering a Students' Union Jacket, PLEASE come up to the Students' Union main office and leave your name and phone number with Lori. The design, color, style etc... has not yet been decided; input from those wanting jackets will be taken into consideration.

That's it for this week! Have a great Spring Break!

Really Funny Guy Coming to AUC

John Stoddart

THE DAGLIGTALTE

One of the fastest rising stars in the comedy heavens today is Toronto native Simon B. Cotter.

Simon's career in comedy began at the tender age of four, while attending Kindergarten. On an otherwise uneventful day a container of plastic drinking tubes spilled on the floor and young Cotter was asked to help pick them up. Handling the fine tube to his harried teacher he proclaimed a loud voice for all to hear: "This is the last straw."

This pronouncement drew howls of laughter from his classmates and although the size and age of his audience has changed since then, the laughter remains.

Recently I observed this consummate artist do what he does best during an evening of comedy at Yuk Yuks. At this particular show Simon was me, and I was struck at once by the fact this man was not poured from the mould of the usual stand-up comedian. Simon, now 30, a bachelor and a man with an exceptionally high IQ, rejecting going for cheap laugh with references to race, or material that is not stand and the test of time.

Within the first five minutes on stage, he evaluated the audience and launched into a two-way dialogue that not only succeeded in getting everyone involved, but also set the tone and theme for his fellow comedians. Simon is not a one-joke teller in the normal sense, he's a story teller along the lines of Bill Cosby, drawing his material from society's every-man and opening our eyes to the absurdities of day-to-day living.

An example: "Why is it that you can move anything in the world by ship except oil? ... You never hear of a bunch of Swedish sofas washing up on shore... No swimming in Miami this week, the beaches are crammed with Lazy Boys."

Simon's list of accomplishments to date include appearances on the CBC and CTV networks, Much Music and Yuk Yuks television shows and opening duties for his compatriots Paul James and The Nylos. His uniqueness and sage appearances (a venue he particularly enjoys) are too numerous to mention.

Simon Cotter writes his one material; he is energetic, driven to succeed and has the talent required to crack the big time south of the border - but first and last he's always a true Canadian with love for his country. Like other Canadian comedians such as Rich Little and Michael J. Fox who have reached the heights in the U.S.A. and returned home, hopefully Simon will be back soon to the fans who love him.

Contributors List

The producers of this issue wish to remain anonymous for fear of retribution, ostracization, or being called faggots. We would like to thanks our contributors, R. Bolstad, M. Klug, and of course our hard-working Sports Editor M. Sahlmark.

T.L.F.

Boomers Pizza
Now Available -
Wholesaler DirectLittle Baby Boomers
5" PizzaFresh, Frozen, Microwaveable Case of 20 - $25.00Boomers 9" and 12"
PizzaFresh, Frozen, Unbaked
9" case of 6 - $30.00
12" case of 6 - $38.00Ka-boomers 15" Pizza
15" case of 6 - $45.00Rainbow Food Services
4935 - 50 Street
Camrose, Alberta T4V 1P9
672-6808
8:30-4:30 pm Monday-Friday

"To the Sexiest Man in second year. STOP drinking so much Root beer." Love: Z&B

Bichito, Going for pasta tonight? Monica.

Celebrating Bestiality: Wear your 4-H pin on March 14th.

Will Trade: Your soul for edible food. Call Satan at 666-HELL.

ATTENTION CAESAR: Beware the Ides of March ATTENTION FOOD SERVICES: Beware the forks of February

Yardape: In response to your question: No, 11 times a day is not normal, and, no, it will not make it shrink (much). -Sue Johnson

For Sale: Blue extension cords- AND PLENTY OF 'EM!!!!
CALL Dingle 948-2557.

LOST: Humility, sensitivity, a caring and/or helpful attitude, and a sense of direction. If found, contact Augustana at 679-1100.

Those of you who are not repulsed by cafeteria food obviously have not smelled my fart.

(HINT: Decent food = Straight Forks)

To all the Cave Beasts at the bar, we don't want you. A concerned drunk

Alberto- You DO have style!

Dag Editors say : "We heard you."

The Editors

THE DAGLIGTALÉ

Dear loyal and faithful readers, in our ongoing quest to produce a quality publication for you we have decided to change the format and style of the Dagligtálé. This need for change was made clear to us after we became aware that the most esteemed members of our community deemed the Dagligtálé negative, biased, and to be colloquial, a bunch of crap.

This ground breaking issue will reposition the Dagligtálé in the Augustana community and will appeal to all who found the old Dagligtálé repugnant to look at and to read. Grosse the editorials that asked questions that may have made a few individuals uncomfortable and may have caused a few people to think a second time about what they accepted as fact. Gone are the articles about events on campus that attempted to bring little known occurrences to the Augustana community. Gone are the offensive totem lists that were inflammatory. As well you can be assured that the January 31, 1994 issue was the last to use the word "controversy" and the last to ask questions of our administration who at times seem to view students as annoyances to be worked around as opposed to people who can be worked with through mutual respect.

What you will find in this new Dagligtálé are unbiased, non-thought provoking, positive, announcements bringing you only the superficial coverage of what is occurring on campus. Announcements galore will be found in every issue and we assure all that they will not be altered in anyway. A lost and found section will keep you on top of all the latest things that have been lost and/or found. Most importantly you will see in this issue that we are going to strive to be positive and best of all nice.

We feel that this is the best direction for the Dagligtálé to take. After all Ralph Klein is not that bad, students do not really need strong representation, this will be especially true if they are all rich. Students really do not need to be treated with respect, after all they are already students and should not expect to have a voice in the direction their university is taking.

On this note, we would like to take the opportunity to apologize to the members of R.H.C. for any offense given by our attempt to humour in the last issue. While it is given that events, editorials, music selections, etc. may not be supported or approved of by members of the Augustana community this disapproval should not lead to personal attacks on the individuals. The effort that various individuals put into some sort of service to their fellow students demands - warrants even - our respect. While our amendment to the R.H.C. submission was intended as a joke, we recognize that some took it as disrespect for their efforts. This was not intended and again we apologize.

To end on a happy note Happy Valentine's Day and we hope that the war in Bosnia has not got you down, and remember to be positive.

Poets' Corner

Liquid Assets

She's gone, not that it matters the wrong things were said the door's slam still echoes in my head offering to take her home, the decent thing, if I cared (I can't remember the last time I cared)
The TV is illuminating erupting a cast of shadows, dancing solely for me.
My wall - a private strip club comforting,
the company, it rapes my mind
An interruption of fringing, as the last piece of cloth falls,
tearson the other end,
hang up and silence the ringer or play the priest.
The receiver rocks in its cradle, and all that's left for me, the silent waltz of a paid program snatching a book from the floor
I crawl to bed and read looking forward to the pain.

R. Bolstad

Anaesthesiologist will you marry me?

Ever sit in a quiet place contemplating sex with the entire human race, but the digital displays drag you away to a social consciousness?
and Do you still dream of being rescued from the bad guys who keep breaking down your door?
To you, it's just another irritating question (left unanswered)
You lit the match that burns the field smoke irritates my eyes the smoldering remains of your autograph in a haze, my thoughts destructive if only to take a scalpel and cut it out screams lost to the walls, falling into the depression my head, all that remains invaded the body already sucked dry Blood on the hand which shattered the glass in the frame of promises which turned to lies.
Needle find the vein to take the hate from my body my world is in darkness, no more voices can be heard.

R. Bolstad

International Fair

Tuesday, February 15, 6:00 - 9:00 Faith and Life Lobby

- Dances, Displays, and lots of Food from cultures all over the world
- Free Prizes!

Throughout the week

John will be giving us very special food in the cafeteria!
For off-campus students, Monica has planned some special treats in the coffeehouse!

Desperately Seeking...

The following is a list of lost items:

red attaché case, black winter bag and wallet, Honda car keys, horse necklace, Schaeffer pen, red tartan pencil case, blue 'Endangered Species' sweatshirt, 3 keys (including bike lock key) on yellow happy face key chain, Radio Shack calculator, women's Timex gold tone watch, men's black felt gloves with green lining, scientific calculator, Harley Davidson men's glasses, gold Seiko with leather band, black mitts, brown knapsack, black biathlon Canada ski gloves, religious studies binder, brown folder, Plato's republic textbook, oval shaped gold miniature framed glasses, burgundy framed glasses in grey case with Polo name brand on frame, one black Classical mechanics text, one French text (red and yellow), intro to Behavioural Science methods text, purple fleece mitts, red green and white scarf, black metal anti-glare lenses, blue red and yellow Super-warm-up ski pants, Mickey Mouse watch, black Guess watch, blue Chem binder, red duotang
- economics, big Esprit bag, brown tie, brown leather coat and keys, hornet keys, dark brown Doc Martin boots, black knit vest, black purple teeva sandals, black elskin wallets, rayban sunglasses, realistic tape recorder

If you have found any of these items, please turn them in to Carol Allen in FLC 203

SPORTS

Hockey

Mike Klug

THE DAGLIGTALÉ

The Vikings Hockey team were the visitors in Edmonton against the Concordia Thunder and won both games by scores of 4-3 in overtime and 6-3. In the first game on January 27th the Vikings played catch up hockey all night until overtime. In the first period Concordia had a 2-0 lead and was winning 3-1 into the third. The Vikings gave a sudden surge of power and scored twice in the third period, then Curtis Holt put away the winning goal at 2:40 of the o/t period. The next night the Vikings were leading 3-1 after 20 minutes, Concordia came back to tie it up at 3:11 after forty minutes of play. In the third period the Vikings scored three unanswered goals to win 6-3.

The following weekend the Vikings played against the NAIT Ooks February 4th and 5th. These last games are very important for the Vikes as it means making the ACAC playoffs. After the weekend the Vikings in the playoff hunt by one point after defeating the Ooks twice, 5-2 in Camrose and 7-6 at the NAIT arena. The Vikings have finally put an end to a drought of wins at the NAIT arena in ACAC league play. As of February 6th the ACAC standings are:

L	T	GF	GP	W
			GA	Pts
MRC	Cougars		18	15
3	0	86	55	30
RDCK	Kings		18	11
6	1	81	72	23
SAIT	Trojans	22	11	10
1	84	92	23
AUC	Vikings		20	11
9	0	80	76	22
Nait	Ooks		18	10
7	1	84	67	21
CCT	Thunder		22	4
17	1	59	112	9

In the first game against the OOKS in Camrose the Vikings had a 2-1 lead after the first period, 4-2 after the second, and added an insurance goal in the third to win 5-2. The goal scorers on Friday were Peter Loeden, Jay Robertson, Kent Todd, Peter Jas and Curtis Holt. In the second game which was played in Edmonton the NAIT Ooks had a 2-1 lead after the first period. In the second period NAIT scored two more goals while the Vikings scored five goals to take the lead in the second period by a score of 6-4. In the third the Vikings held onto a 7-6 win. The next home action is RDC Kings on February 12th, with the Vikings on the hunt for a playoff spot.

A quick update on the game between the Vikings and RDC Kings in Red Deer: Red Deer started the scoring with one goal in the first period. The Vikings answered back in the second with five goals to Red Deer's three in the second, making the score 5-4 going into the third period. The Vikings scored two more goals, but the Kings tied up the match with three more goals, the score going into over-time was a tied 7-7. Neither team managed a goal with tough defence, therefore the game is a 7-7 o/t tie. The Vikings now have one last time to beat the Kings Saturday, February 12th. Til next time, see ya at rinkside.

Biathlon

On January 29 and 30 the Augustana Biathlon team hosted the Alberta-Saskatchewan Dual meet and the Alberta Cup #6. The Alberta team swept the competition from our prairie neighbors east of us. Sue Rodgers came up with results of 3rd in the individual race, and 4th in the sprint. Max Boaz placed 5th in the individual and 3rd in the sprint. Carlos Settle had a nice press week and placing first in both races, and Craig Rogers placed 7th and 5th for the individual and sprint. These races are important as they determine the Alberta Winter Games teams for Zone 4.

Cross country skiing

The Western Canadian Championships were held in Grande Prairie February 4-5th. Kirk Howell proved he still has what it takes by placing first in the Jr. Men's 10km Free Technique in a time of 28:17. Andreas came in right behind him to take second with a time of 28:24. Juanita Sutton took silver in the competition with a time of 17:05, only 42 seconds behind the first placed Doris Hausleitner of Whitehorse. Christina Jenkins came in 5th with a time of 19:10, followed closely by Zoe Clark with a time of 19:16. On Saturday in the 5x3 relays, the Augustana team of Christina Jenkins, Zoe Clark and Juanita Sutton placed 7th in a time of 1:01:08. The same ranking was taking by Andreas Dahle, Reint Boelman, and Kirk Howell in a time of 51:58 from a total of 23 teams.

In the ACAC Grand Prix held in Red Deer the Vikings soared to another victory. Marvin Lizotte lead the team in a close contest race with Red Deer's Peter McKenzie. Peter managed to finish 1 sec ahead of Marvin. Quinton Blindenbach came in third with a time of 33:05. Taking the top three Augustana finishes gives them a low score of 11 pts for the overall and puts Red Deer in close contention with 1st, 5th and 6th for a score of 12 pts. The match up is close for the ACAC Championships.

In the Women's 5 km race first year Vikings team of Tanya Benson, Seibel Kosak, Lisa Morken and Allison Herron scored 1st, 2nd, 4th, and 9th respectively. Taking the top three finishes produce a winning low score of 7 pts for gold. Well done Vikings, we're proud of you!

The Jr. Nationals will be held in Canmore from February 24th to March 1st.

FLEXIBILITY!

Times change. So does the world. And with it, your own needs, goals, and desires. Having flexibility in a future career is important to you. To be able to change.

To grow. A career as a Chartered Accountant gives you that flexibility, and more.

As a CA, you will have the skills and abilities to work in a broad range of organizations, in satisfying and challenging positions.

And if you become interested in exploring alternative work arrangements, a CA designation gives you more room to be flexible. Think about it!

A career as a CA can provide you with the options you want, to create the lifestyle which suits you best. Now and in the future.

CA - THE RIGHT CHOICE. ANY TIME.

For more information, please contact:

Institute of Chartered Accountants of Alberta
424-7391 (Edmonton) 264-3420 (Calgary)
1-800-232-9406 (Other Alberta)

